LONDON, Eng.—(AP)—The forld economic conference, nost momentous assembly in recent history, got under way Monday afternoon with delegates from virtually every nation on earth gathered to try to end the big slump in busi-

King George himself, in acknowledgement of the importance of the occasion, formally opened the first plenary session in the great new geolog-ical museum in Kensington, despite the fact that he was suffering from severe rheumatism. His address was in effect a prayer which was called to bring aid to suffering humanity. Prime Minister MacDonald, presient of the conference, followed the king with an impassioned plea for coperation and action, and dealt somewhat with the machinery of the con-
